

Careers Advisers

Throughout your time at school you'll have to make some big decisions about your future, and that's where Skills Development Scotland's highly qualified Careers Advisers come in.

Carole Millar is based right here in the school to give you the careers support you need throughout your time with us.

Through a combination of group sessions, one-to-one interviews and drop in clinics Carole will help you understand how your personality, interests and values are key to making the right career decisions. They can also help you understand how to develop and use your talents and skills, explore where they could take you, and identify who can help you along on your career journey. All to help you plan for and manage your career.

To find out more about the support on offer please contact:

My World of Work

My World of Work is Scotland's online careers information and advice service - offering tools to help you choose a career. You'll also find information and advice on topics like CVs and interviews, learning and training, job vacancies and apprenticeships. If you're a parent, there's advice on how to support your child as they make career decisions. To find out more go to myworldofwork.co.uk, follow @mywowscotland on Twitter or My World of Work on Facebook. From Skills Development Scotland.

Apprenticeships.scot

Apprenticeships have changed, with more than 80 different types covering hundreds of jobs. With a Modern Apprenticeship you get a job, get paid and get qualified - in some roles right up to degree level. No wonder more than 25,000 people choose a Modern Apprenticeship every year. Want to know more? At apprenticeships.scot you can search for apprenticeships, apply for apprenticeship jobs and find out more about the different levels of qualifications. You can also check out Foundation Apprenticeships which help you kick-start your career before you even leave school. Go to apprenticeships.scot and follow @apprentice\_scot. From Skills Development Scotland.
